EXPERIENCE

Adam J. Barcori is an Associate in the firm's Western New York office. He worked with the firm throughout law school, gaining hands-on experience in New York State and federal courts while completing his legal studies.

During law school, Adam also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Kathleen B. Hogan in the New York Court of Claims and Saratoga County Supreme Court, where he further developed his understanding of judicial decision-making, effective advocacy and courtroom procedure.

Adam earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Albany Law School in May 2025, and was a semi-finalist in the 2024 Gabrielli Appellate Advocacy Competition. He received his Bachelor of Science in Professional Sales, magna cum laude, from Bentley University. Prior to joining the firm, Adam held client-facing business roles, where he developed strong communication, project management, and client service skills that he now brings to his representation of the firm's clients.

He represents individuals, insurance companies and business entities in a wide range of litigation areas, including automobile liability, civil rights, construction defect, construction site accidents, dealership liability, municipal liability, premises liability, products liability, professional malpractice and school district liability.
